

Scarlet Oak Meritorious Service Award

The Rutgers University Alumni Association's Meritorious Service Award (also known as the Scarlet Oak Award) recognizes an alumnus/a who has exceeded expectations in his or her role as a volunteer and who has served as a model for all volunteers in the Rutgers community. This award was previously given by the Rutgers University Alumni Federation.

The following Livingston College alumni have been recognized with the Meritorious Service Award:

1986 Awardee

Amos Danube,
LC'72, GSNB'75
(died in 2001)

1990 Awardee

Christopher Berzinski,
LC'80, GSNB'82

2002 Awardee

Jeffrey M.
Isaacs,
LC'84

2007 Awardee

Michael T. Beachem,
LC'73, GSED '78, '84
(died in 2025)

2007 Awardee

Jason Goldstein,
LC'02, RBS'05

2011 Awardee

Saskia Agustin,
LC'04, SPAA'10

2011 Awardee

Marty Siederer,
LC'77

2013 Awardee

Katty Rivera,
LC'04, GSE'09

