

All-Alumni Theater Events

The Livingston Alumni Association (LAA) is a proud sponsor of All-Alumni Theater Events, with a reception and entertainment provided by The Livingston Theatre Company (LTC), followed by a performance of LTC's latest musical play.

At the All-Alumni Theater events, students from Rutgers' premier musical theater organization typically perform songs from favorite musicals in an exciting showcase. The events also feature interviews with the leaders of the LTC's executive board and cast members.

 Theater Nights/Afternoons have included the LTC's productions of: Godspell (April 2000), The Will Rogers Follies (April 2003), Kiss Me Kate (November 2003), Damn Yankees (April 2004), A Chorus Line (November 2004), Camelot (April 2005), Little Shop of Horrors (October 2005), Ragtime (April 2006), Urinetown (October 2006 and April 2016), Cabaret (April 2007), The Full Monty (October 2007), Seussical (April 2008), Sweeney Todd (February 2010), The Producers (April 2013), Hair (February 2014), In the Heights (April 2015), Oklahoma! (April 2017), Legally Blonde (April 2018), Violet (February 2019), Behind the Curtain with the LTC (virtual, May 2021), Pippin (April 2023), Disney's Beauty and the Beast (April 2024), A Chorus Line (February 2025), and Footloose: The Musical (February 2026).

A Theater Afternoon had been planned for the April 2020 production of Mamma Mia, which was canceled because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Top photo: The cast of LTC's Legally Blonde, April 15, 2018. Additional photos from the 2018 event, by Qiumei Wang, Rutgers Business School Alumni Association.

Bottom photo: Jason Goldstein, founder of LTC and a former president of LAA, talks with Julia Mendes, MGSA'17, LTC's managing director, at Theater Night on April 22, 2017. They spoke about the LTC's presentation of Oklahoma! and the world of musical theater. Additional photos of the 2017 performers and attendees, courtesy of Fran Siederer.