

Documentation of Livingston College History

Documents and Photos Related to Livingston College's 50th Anniversary and Beyond

- A short history of Livingston College, from its planning in 1965 to its final commencement in 2010, is available on another page on this site.
- Several authors have written about Livingston College's history in both popular and scholarly works. See a selected bibliography.
- For a list of student yearbooks produced during Livingston College's history, including links to cover-to-cover online versions of the yearbooks, please see this page.

In addition to the yearbooks, handbooks, newspapers, and other publications and documents from Livingston College, scanned by the Internet Archive, are available.

-  Many of the materials are from the collection of Louis T. Economopoulos (pictured at left), a 1973 graduate of Livingston College.
- Kenneth Lew has included a few Livingston College documents within his collection of publications and other documents on New Brunswick and Rutgers history. The Livingston College items are:
  - * Livingston College – Admission to the University in New Brunswick, New Jersey (1971). (The 1969 and 1970 editions of the same document are available in LAA's collection hosted by the Internet Archive.)
  - * To Members of the Class of 1983 (March 1, 1979)
  - * Dear Freshman (May 12, 1979)
- Rutgers' Special Collections and University Archives (held within Alexander Library on the College Avenue campus in New Brunswick) holds numerous documents on Livingston College's history. Note that the documents themselves are available for review in person only at the library. Among the relevant Livingston College documents are:
  - Records of the Office of the Dean of Livingston College, Ernest A. Lynton, 1965-1973
  - Guide to the Walton R. Johnson Papers, 1949-2001
  - Guide to the Rutgers Grass Roots – Progressive Activists Files, 1921-1993 (1979-1993, bulk)

- The Penn State University (PSU) Libraries website DOES offer online access to some documents related to Livingston College's history, via the Horowitz Transaction Publishers Archive.

In August 2006 the Historical Collections and Labor Archives (HCLA) division of the Special Collections Library of the PSU acquired the corporate archives of Transaction Publishers, a gift of Dr. Irving Louis Horowitz, chairman of the board of Transaction Publishers and the Hannah Arendt Distinguished University Professor (Emeritus), Department of Sociology, Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey.

The quads were reinterpretations of the quadrangular colleges of Oxford and Cambridge, broken up into smaller volumes along each side. The shape creates an intimate outdoor courtyard.
