PRESERVING THE HISTORY.
ADVANCING THE LEGACY.

Livi at 50: A Remembrance of Livingston College: Latino Studies and the Livingston Panthers Sports Teams

Our “Livi at 50” celebration continues with a special program on April 22 at 7:00 p.m. Eastern. We’ll take a look back at the events that led to the formation of the Latino Studies program at Livingston, along with a remembrance of the Livingston College Panthers sports teams! Iris Martinez Campbell LC’75, SSW’81 will moderate a discussion about the Latino Studies program with Margie Rivera LC’72, Grizel Ubarry LC’74, and LAA President Jeff Armus will lead a discussion about the Livingston Panthers with Lucille Lo Sapio LC’76, BernaDette Session LC’75, Dwight Williams, defensive coordinator of the Panthers, and Rick Williams LC’74, a member of the team. You’ll be able to share your memories and ask questions throughout the evening.
